Designer Renovation

This lovely renovation is well worth your inspection, you can move in and unpack and sit on the front veranda, watch the wind in the trees and listen to the birds. The home has clean lines, polished concrete floors and a modern chefs kitchen, spacious bedrooms and all renovated up with an eye for detail.

This property boasts views to the Blackall Range, it is walking distance to the Village and within a short bike ride or walk to the local public school.

The owners purchased this sweet home and turned it into a comfortable, clean modern feel, designer home. Down the track the new owner could render the brick and add a few final touches to make this home just glow. The main bedroom has a fantastic en suite and the main bathroom has a large deep bath for the family to relax and unwind in. There is plenty of room to expand, let the kids play in the yard and live with out any traffic noise or loud neighbours. The train will travel by in the distance and you can let the busy life disappear while you relax and enjoy the work that is already done.

The home is loaded with quality appliances, new bathrooms, an office, a fireplace and a fantastic landscaped backyard with new shed and retaining walls and all this on a large 2396m² Block of land
