

158 Connection Rd, Glenview

Hamptons Style Home

This beautiful home on the Connection Rd is one that the locals know as the pretty house, its Cape cod design has been married with the Hamptons style, giving it a beautiful country feel.

The home feels very country and garden, with high ceilings, interesting and cozy spaces with family friendly design. There is a long veranda at the front with a heavy front door that leads into the home. The first thing you notice is the style, its open and airy and boasts a living room, office at the entrance and a huge private undercover deck out the back.

As you enter the home you notice it has a second floor and when you walk up the stairwell you come to a large bedroom with its own living room and bathroom, this is air conditioned and has room to expand as there is a whole section next to it that would be called an attic but can be built in and used as another bedroom or more living space.

Going back downstairs there is the family room, three bedrooms and a wonderful bathroom with a claw foot bathtub. Going down a few more stairs you come into the double garage, mud room and hobby room. This leads out the back to the vegi gardens, landscaped yard and large acre block with the pond and room for kids to
